

CODE OF PRACTICE FOR VOLUNTEER ORGANISATIONS

Volunteering Australia has developed, through consultation with volunteer involving organisations and projects in the not for profit sector, national standards for volunteer involvement which represent and explain the tenets of 'best practice' in the management of volunteers.

The following points identify policy considerations for volunteering involving organisations and can be addressed as part of the process to implement the national standards.

- Interview and employ volunteers in accordance with anti discrimination and equal opportunity legislation;
- Provide volunteer staff with orientation and training;
- Provide volunteer staff with a healthy and safe workplace;
- Provide appropriate and adequate insurance coverage for volunteer staff;
- Not place volunteer staff in roles that were previously held by paid staff or have been identified as paid jobs;
- Differentiate between paid and unpaid roles;
- Define volunteer roles and develop clear job descriptions;
- Provide appropriate levels of support and management for volunteer staff;
- Provide volunteers with a copy of policies pertaining to volunteer staff;
- Ensure volunteers are not required to take up additional work during industrial disputes or paid staff shortage;
- Provide all staff with information on grievance and disciplinary policies and procedures;
- Acknowledge the rights of volunteer staff;
- Ensure that the work of volunteer staff complements but does not undermine the work of paid staff;
- Offer volunteer staff the opportunity for professional development;
- Reimburse volunteer staff for out of pocket expenses incurred on behalf of the organisation;
- Treat volunteer staff as valuable team members, and advise them of the opportunities to participate in agency decisions; and
- Acknowledge the contributions of volunteer staff
